Saddle Up with Dennis Brouse™ recruiting horses to be featured in Season 3 of hit TV show

If selected, Brouse will train horse for free and highlight it on national TV show

July 9, 2009, Le Claire, Iowa – Dennis Brouse, a nationally-renowned horse trainer, is looking for Iowa riding horses and their owners to be featured in Season 3 of his hit TV show Saddle Up with Dennis Brouse™ (www.saddleupwithdennisbrouse.com).

The public television show celebrates the storied relationship between horses and humans. Each episode of Saddle Up with Dennis Brouse showcases a specific training question or situation addressed by Brouse with the horse's owner.

Brouse will begin filming Season 3 of the show this fall, and is looking for horses and owners who are working to resolve a training problem, such as head tossing, bad ground manners, invasion of space, fear of water, etc.

The horses must be ridden on a regular basis and be located within a 2-3 hour drive of the Cedar Rapids and Iowa City area. For the TV series, Brouse will not do colt starting or work with horses that haven't been ridden within the past six months.

Brouse will train the selected horses for free and feature their stories in Season 3 of Saddle Up with Dennis Brouse. Footage may also be used in Brouse's training DVD set, which teaches his safe, gentle and effective training methods. Eastern Iowa horse owners are encouraged to sign up at www.saddleupwithdennisbrouse.com/issues.

"My training techniques are based on building a bond between humans and horses," said Brouse. "Training horses isn't about breaking the horse – it's about establishing leadership, building a bond and truly communicating with your horse."

Saddle Up with Dennis Brouse was made possible with Iowa film tax credits, and both Season 1 and 2 were filmed at numerous locations in Iowa. Season 1 is currently airing on Iowa Public Television on Saturday mornings at 8 a.m. Season 2, which was filmed in May of 2009, is currently in post-production and will begin airing on public television stations across the country later this fall.

Saddle Up with Dennis Brouse is made possible by American Cowboy, Featherlite Trailers, Fund for Horse Charities, Gold Buckle Network, and Kent Feeds.
